

GREEN JOBS FOR America

Sustainable Economic Development

General Definition

Sustainable Economic Development is developing a process to benefit neighborhood men and women to enable empowerment, self-sufficiency and control over their present situation: but the effects will be felt from generations to come in a positive manner.

Sustainable Economic Development

Baseline and GAP Analysis

Advance Property Inventory Database

Merchant Database

Business Owner Surveys

Community Leadership Database

Alternative Energy Survey (Wind, Sun, etc)

Emergency Preparedness Resource Survey

Market Analysis

Proposed CDC Programs and actions

Partnership with International, National, State and Regional Organizations

CDC Building with Zero Energy Usage (Solar, Wind, etc.)

Annual Community Profile report

Business Incubator Program

Business Directory

Community Wide Green Initiatives

Community Health Empowerment

Outcome orientated programs

Expanded Merchant Assn.

CDC Website with Project Management

Zero Energy Building Initiatives

Community Leadership Programs

Job Creation Program

Holistic Health , Wealth and Wellness Programs

Community Mobilization

Leadership by Example

Sample CDC Programs

- Business Incubator to develop proper business skills.
- Zero Energy Health Homes from foreclosure. Resale, Rent-to-own.
- Green Work Force Development Programs
- Youth Leadership programs with Boy and Girl Scouts of America and AmeriCorps
- Father's Matter Leadership Programs
- Family First Programs
- Faith Base Health Programs

